

LYNSEY SIERACKI

Board Member

Lyndsey, a lifelong Calgarian, has been a dedicated member of the veterinary industry since her early volunteer days at the age of 12. A graduate of Olds College in 2014, with a Degree in Animal Health Technology. She has gained experience in emergency services, small and mixed animal practices. Currently, she works with a board certified internal medicine specialist at an emergency clinic in Calgary.

Committed to aiding both animals and their owners. Lyndsey is dedicated to contributing to Parachutes for Pets. Residing in High River, Alberta. She shares her life with her German Shepherd, Hondo, a cat named Timon, and Dolly, her quarter horse.