

UDANI PERERA

Board Member

Udani is the Principal Lawyer and Founder of Perera Legal Group (“PLG”). Udani is licensed to practice law. Licensed in Alberta and Ontario, with a Juris Doctor Degree from the Faculty of Law of Queen's University in Kingston and a BA in Law and society from York University. Her practice focuses on litigation, specializing in immigration and family law.

Before law, Udani gained experience in retail management, business development, and community service. She co-founded Pawsitive lives, a Sri Lankan stray dog sanctuary, driven by her commitment to animal rights.